

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1893.

NO. 12

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Ex Deputy Sheriff Henry A. Burdett was married last week to Miss Mary Evans, of Jessamine county.

—A protracted meeting begins at the Methodist church to-night and will be conducted by Rev. Taylor, of Danville.

—Messrs. Ed Buchanan and O. B. Shugart with their cornets and J. E. Stornes with his baritone rendered valuable assistance to the choir at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

—The Knights of Pythias have made an engagement with Deway Heywood's New York Stars to give one of their concerts at the court-house on May 2. This company is highly recommended by the press and will be greeted by a large audience.

—A colored man named Faulkner was before Judge Robinson Saturday on a warrant sworn out by Bud Broadus, charging him with stealing a wheat drill. Faulkner was fined $15. During the progress of the trial, Broadus attempted once or twice to strike the negro.

—"Monkey John," the 13-year-old negro boy who was convicted of grand larceny at the last term of court, and sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary, was pardoned by Gov. Brown on account of his age. He came back from Frankfort Saturday, dressed in a new suit, and says he liked his trip very much. He is a splendid case for the whipping post.

—Miss Debbie Bateson, of Lexington, is visiting relatives here. Dr. Davison and Miss Straub, of Stanford, were the guests of Miss Nellie Dillon Sunday. Misses Lizzie Thompson and Lillie Grant and Messrs. A. J. Rice and Will Robinson visited Stanford Sunday. Mr. Bruce Cogar went to Harrodsburg Sunday on business. Miss Altie Marksbury visited relatives in Boyle county and Danville Friday and Saturday. Mr. Will Jennings, of Paint Lick, is visiting his mother. Mrs. Alex Denny is visiting in Stanford. Mr. John Henderson, of Richmond, is in town. Miss Lou Grant has returned from Paris. Mrs. Dr. Bush has returned from Cynthia.

DANVILLE.

—Mrs. S. D. Van Pelt and son Wheelan visited friends in Lexington, last week.

—Dr. Boland will lecture at the Opera House Tuesday on "Your Best Girl and How to Treat Her."

—Will Georgie, a colored boy, until recently a resident of Danville, was shot dead in a livery stable Thursday, at Bedford, Ind.

—James H. Swango, a Centre College student, was the winner in the oratorical contest at Lexington Friday night. His competitors were Coleman Groves, of Central University, Manry Kemper, of Kentucky University, W. P. Oldham, of Georgetown College.

—Wes Withers was sent to the work-house from the police court Saturday for 27 days for snapping a gun at Geo. Griffin and threatening to do him up some time in the near future. Frank Conover was an early morning customer of the police court Monday. Breach of the peace; $20 and cost.

—The Boyle County Democratic Committee was reorganized Saturday by elections held throughout the county, and is now made up as follows: J. L. Bruce, Dr. B. T. Wood, A. M. King, E. B. Russell, C. B. Helm, A. G. Whitley, T. D. English, John Bonta, Jr., P. D. Husing, J. P. Harbison.

—A. T. Hutchings, of the livery stable firm of Hutchings & Roberts, has made an assignment. Assets and liabilities each about $1,200. Mr. Cullom, of the Baptist Theological Seminary, preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night. He may continue to preach at this church a portion of the summer.

—J. Mulcahy, the Plymouth Rock pantaloon man, who bamboozled the holy city of Danville out of $100, but can't do it again, hallelujah! is now in the Lexington work-house, sent there by Judge Jewell, the same who said "politics is shel!" Mulcahy sold pantaloon in Lexington and wouldn't take out license before doing so, and of course expects to get money out of the city when she finds out the ordinance is unconstitutional.

—A Washington correspondent of a New York paper is authority for a statement that the President has ordered that no more fourth-class postmasters be removed unless they have served four years or there are charges made and proved against him.

—An unpleasant taste in the molasses used by a Tennessee family led to an investigation of the barrel, which had been received from the wicked city of Nashville, and inside the body of a negro boy of 10 or 11 years was found.

—A portion of the siding of the Kentucky building at the World's Fair grounds was blown off by Friday night's storm, which seems to have taken in a large area of the country.

—Harvey Robinson, a prominent citizen of Valparaiso, Ind., took his own life because, he said, he "could not longer endure his wife's nightly curtain lectures."

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—A. W. Huggins and wife, of Mt. Vernon, are here on a visit to relatives.

—A happy party of a dozen or more of young and old folks picniced at Speak's mill Saturday.

—Sands & Rentfrow's circus will only go to the small towns such as Mt. Vernon and Barbourville, but John Robinson's show will be here on June 4th.

—Another trip of two days to Rockcastle river last week resulted only in two suckers being caught. This fish tale is strictly true.

—J. W. Bastin, of Pittsburg, is the first Laurel democrat to get an appointment under the new administration, having been appointed postmaster at that place. John is as good a democrat as ever wore shoe leather or cast a ballot and was the former postmaster there.

—The woods were afire at almost every point in the county Friday and the wind being so high, it was impossible to check it. Thousands of rails were destroyed everywhere and the loss to many of the farmers is great and will be especially hard on them at this season of the year, when all their attention is needed to prepare for this year's crops.

GRAB ORCHARD.

—Miss Martha Holdman has improved so much in health as to be able to spend Thursday with her cousin, Miss Bessie Magee. We hope she will soon be perfectly well again. Mrs. J. R. Bailey is improving in the last few days. Her friends hope this pleasant weather will restore her to health.

—Mrs. Buchanan's private school closed last week and the following received prizes: For deportment, Bessie Carson and Little Fannie King received prizes. In higher spelling Katie Slaughter; in little spelling Dan Slaughter; in third reader Roscoe Perkins; in last spelling John Chadwick; in 3d spelling Annie May Stephens, who also gained a prize for the most improvement in writing. In reading Berta James received the prize, being an excellent reader for so young a child.

—Mr. J. W. Guest, of Danville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Laura Moore. Willie Brooks is home again to see his mother and sister. Mrs. H. L. Steger is in Louisville laying in her summer millinery and learning the latest to be learned in dress-making. She will be able to please any taste, both in hats and dresses. I took a peep at both our millinery shops yesterday and can say I never saw lovelier spring goods. Miss Leah Steger has every shade and shape in hats and the loveliest display of flowers and trimmings to be seen. Mrs. King was kept busy waiting on her customers and has ordered her third stock of spring hats, which are handsome.

HUBBLE.

—G. A. Swinebroad sold 80 sheep to Frank Harris for $6 per head. Jesse A. Swope, Sr., of Indiana, is visiting friends here. Dr. G. W. Bronaugh was called to see Miss Rida Underwood, who has been very sick for a few days, but is now much improved. S. Dunbar sold Prewitt & Woods his flock of sheep at $25 per head. Thomas Reed has moved from the George Eubanks property to Squire Bright's. G. A. Swinebroad is in Tennessee buying sheep.

ARE YOU GOING?—If so get posted ahead and go the best way. The World's Fair opens May 1, and from the South and Southern Ohio, the route via C. H. & D. offers the most advantages both in comfort and points of interest. The C. H. & D. in connection with the Monon is the only line running Pullman vestibuled trains with dining-cars between Cincinnati and Chicago. The unequalled service of this route has earned for it the title of the "World's Fair Route." Purchase tickets via the C. H. & D. For rates, and full information call on or address any C. H. & D. agent or E. O. McCormick, G. P. & T. Agt., "World's Fair Route," 200 W. 4th Street, Cincinnati, O. Send 20 cents in stamps to the latter address and receive a panoramic view, five feet long, of Chicago and the World's Fair, showing relative heights of buildings, &c.

The controversy over the reorganization of the force of officers of the United States Senate was ended Thursday by the election of the Democratic caucus nominees, with the understanding that the new officers will not assume their positions until the next regular or called session of Congress.

—Secretary Hoke Smith has already begun to carry into effect his policy of dispensing with the services of all incompetent clerks in his department, or those appointed purely for political reasons. A number has been already fired.

—After all the journalistic talk about crinolines it seems it has not materialized. This is as much as to say that the papers don't create the bustle in woman's dress they once did.—Philadelphia Times.

—Four of the pupils of the Kentucky Female Orphan Asylum at Midway ran off with two young men the other night. They were captured but not allowed to return to the asylum.

NEWSY NOTES.

—An Ironton, Ohio, family ate greens in which poke-root was cooked. One of them died and the rest barely escaped.

—Dr. J. N. McCormack, of Kentucky, who for eight years had been President of the National Health Conference, was supplanted by Dr. C. A. Lindsey, of Connecticut.

—The fire losses of the United States and Canada for the month of March aggregate the appalling total of $16,662,350. To this Covington contributed almost a million dollars.

—Late appointments are Hannis Taylor, of Alabama, to be Minister to Spain, Caleb W. West, governor of Utah, and Dominick I. Murphy, first deputy commissioner of pensions.

—Henry Flaminian, a staff worker, at the World's Fair, fell through a skylight to the ground below, 180 feet, and struck head first. His head was driven nearly into his abdomen.

—In New York Judge Barrett dissolved the temporary restraining orders to prevent local labor leaders from instituting a boycott against the firms which locked out the clothing cutters.

—New York State will receive many hundred thousand dollars each year from the one per cent. tax on all estates over $10,000. The Jay Gould estate is expected to yield no less than $720,000.

—While the weather was so summer-like here Friday, there was a heavy fall of snow in New York in the morning. In the Catskills eight inches fell; there were three inches at Troy and Syracuse.

—The report of the examiner in charge of the Commercial National Bank, of Nashville, states that it will require an assessment of about 80 per cent. on the stockholders to pay off the bank's indebtedness.

—Maj. John Gault, for so many years master of trains on the L. & N., with office at Louisville, has been reduced to his old run as passenger conductor and his office consolidated with the chief train dispatcher's.

—The faculty of the Kentucky University at Lexington has given consent to allow the students to engage in the intercollegiate league games of football and base ball this season. This is a great victory for the students.

—A New York paper says that Miss Sallie Moore, who disappeared some time ago, is at her home in Marion, Ky., and has given birth to a child. It is said she intends to sue its father, who lives in New York, for $10,000 damages.

—Mrs. Nellie Beycourt, of Indianapolis, who has been a confirmed cigarette smoker for four years, has been adjudged insane and the use of cigarettes the cause. She imagines she is dead and it would no doubt be better for her if she were.

—The distilleries in the Louisville district are turning out such a flood of whisky that one or two warehouse fires will not affect the supply. During the month of March they manufactured 99,997 barrels, or 4,485,284.76 gallons, on which the tax will be $4,036,755.60.

—The Cincinnati Sanitarium a private institution for the treatment of the insane was almost totally destroyed by fire. There were 72 inmates, 22 of whom were confined behind iron bars, but fortunately all were taken out in safety. Loss about $100,000; covered by insurance.

—While men were cleaning out a well at Middlesboro, the bodies of two white infants were found at the bottom. About twenty families have been using water from the well, and a great deal of sickness and some deaths have occurred. Many of them are supposed to be due to this fact.

—Lewis Land, who asserts that he accompanied, against his will, the party of young men guilty of the assassination of Mrs. Henry Delaney, near Sturgis, made a full confession of all the facts connected with the deplorable affair. Excitement is decreasing and it is thought the law will be permitted to take its course.

—Receiver Felton, of the Queen and Crescent, has issued a general order prohibiting employees of the company from drinking or even frequenting saloons. No distinction is made between employees—the order affects all alike. Mr. Felton has gone a little further than any other railway official, even the saving clause "while on duty" being omitted.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Lebanon Methodist church has just put in a $500 pipe organ.

—Rev. George Darsie's meeting at Mt. Sterling continues with 18 additions.

—Rev. R. D. Harding, of Somerset, preached two fine sermons at the Christian church here Sunday.

—George I. Seney, the Brooklyn philanthropist whose various contributions to churches exceeded $1,250,000, died Friday.

—A free-love community has been discovered in Wooster county, O., that beats anything of the kind ever known. The details are simply disgusting.

—Sam Jones is literally playing shool in Bowling Green. He has stirred the town from centre to circumference and practically suspended business. Verily all the fools are not yet "deceased."

—The Rt. Rev. C. C. Penick, of Louisville, has resigned the rectorship of St. Andrew's church to become general agent of the commission on work in behalf of Colored Protestant Episcopalians.

—Mrs. Minnie N. Caldwell has given to the Baptist Theological Seminary, property in Louisville valued at nearly $100,000. It is to constitute "the Dr. Wm. Beverly Caldwell, Jr., endowment," and is made "to give impression to the love and affection she bears for her late husband."

—Rev. A. S. Moffett, who had been with her repeatedly during her illness, preached the funeral sermon of Mrs. John T. Lynn and it was the most appropriate and comforting discourse we have ever listened to. In fact, the whole service, including a touching prayer by Rev. W. A. Slaymaker and the solo, "Some Sweet Day," plaintively sung by Mrs. A. G. Huffman, fell like a sweet benediction on the many hearts that loved Miss Kittie Wray in life and mourn her loss in death.

—Rev. Ben Helm writes us as follows: We are having a glorious meeting at Pittsburg. The dear Lord was here in advance. We find his presence everywhere whether we meet and pray with men and women in their homes, or on the rail road track or at church. Mr. Hyden, of Danville Theo. Seminary is with me. He is a "hustler" in the Master's work: full of zeal and the Holy Spirit. The Lord has given him a wonderful hold on the hearts of his people. And the two venerable and saintly workers, Rev. B. B. VanNys and wife, are also here like patriarchs doing the Master's will. From the first night souls have been saved. Thursday night alone 16 confessed Christ. The Lord be praised. Up to that time 37 have—we trust found a savior's pardoning grace. If you knew them by name you would say "Wonderful, and it is marvelous in our eyes." Brother Godbey, not T. J., is holding a meeting at East Bernstadt. We hope to see the waters moved from town to town and it is needed for the half way point is the danger time. One poor fellow whom Brother Hyden spoke to about eternity Wednesday started to church that night; fell in with bad company, instead of coming to church, was found dead down the rail road between here and East Bernstadt. The Coroner's jury said killed by the train. Christians are working here for the Master like beavers. Some are our Lincoln Co. folks. Denominational channels are submerged in Christ's love. Glory to God. Friday night 26 came out on the Lord's side and we had an old time revival meeting.

APRIL 10.—The good work goes on, God be praised. About 105 confessions to date. Yesterday I baptized over 30, who joined the Presbyterian fold. It is the only time we have publicly opened the church doors. House is packed nightly by as deeply serious audiences as I ever saw. Sometimes many cannot get in. We hope to work on all the week.

EVERY FRIDAY.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL has always inveighed against lynch law and advocated a strict execution of the legal penalties against crime. There are, however, some offenses that are so heinous that the slow progress of the written law do not seem to cover them. These are crimes against women and they ought to be atoned for in the most summary and condign manner possible. Down in Union county, this State, a young woman was cruelly betrayed by a man who refused in any way to make reparation for the wrong, till finally, to save her from disgrace, her parents forced the rascal to marry her. While the party were returning at night from Morganfield, where the ceremony was performed, friends of the betrayer, at his instance, no doubt, waylaid them and mortally wounded the poor girl and her father, the former dying next day in great agony. Several of the crowd were arrested and one, who claims he was forced to accompany it, turned State's evidence and gave the whole revolting business away. There is no law on the statute books capable of dealing with such a crime, at least in the slipshod way it is administered, and the people owe it to themselves to see that the carcasses of the foul brutes who committed the crime are not permitted to longer pollute the earth than they can hang them and burn their bodies. The law's delay and the other hindrances to the punishment of criminals known to the arts of a certain class of lawyers should not be permitted to avail in this case. Let Judge Lynch order an immediate execution.

THE general passenger agent of the Queen & Crescent, Mr. D. G. Edwards, has issued a circular to connecting lines, proposing variable routes to passengers for the World's Fair, which if adopted will prove of great convenience to the traveling public, besides afford a most excellent opportunity of advertising the resources of the Southern country. The proposition is as follows: "Let the passengers go North over the L. & N. via Cincinnati, Louisville or Evansville, and return via Louisville and the Louisville Southern and Queen and Crescent, or via Cincinnati and the Queen & Crescent to destination, or to go via the Queen & Crescent to Cincinnati, or the Queen & Crescent and Louisville Southern to Louisville, and return via the L. & N. from either Evansville, Louisville or Cincinnati." There is no doubt that such an arrangement would encourage travel to the South, which would result in advantage both to that section and the railroads. We trust it will be adopted.

GEN. BISSALL is said to be very sensitive in regard to the word "headman" being applied to him or any of his subordinates, but why, does not appear. He issued an order against the publication of appointments of fourth-class postmasters in order to stop the use of the word, but he saw his mistake at once and revoked the order thereby showing that he does not belong to that class which are said never to change their minds. The original order, however, was a very foolish one and if it had been persisted in would have proved that the president made a big mistake in the appointment of a postmaster general. The people have some rights yet and one of them is the right to know who is to serve them.

MISS LELA HENLEY, who was fired by Wanamaker to give place to a male republican, has been reappointed postmaster at Cloverport, and Amos West will handle the mails at Mayfield. The president remarked the other day that in all instances in which removals had been made without cause he would see to it that republican beneficiaries were bounced as soon as possible. It will also be his policy to allow those appointed at the expiration of the terms of democrats to complete their terms, which is fair and just.

It turns out that the 40 European beauties who are to go on exhibition at the World's Fair are a job lot of jaded ballet "girls" who perhaps used to pirouette for the delectation of our grandmothers. We haven't a doubt that every one of them is afflicted with Prof. Bummelpfeiffer's bacillus cozensius and wouldn't go near them for a fortune. Kentucky girls are pretty enough to satisfy the most fastidious any way.

YOUNG Bill Sterrett, editor of the late Louisville Girl, which went the way of his many other numerous newspaper ventures after a precarious existence of a few months, was elected mayor of Hawesville by a majority of six. Mayoralty timber seems to be getting scarce in several towns of the State, judging by recent elections.

It was 28 years ago Sunday since Gen. Robert E. Lee surrendered his sword to Gen. U. S. Grant at the famous apple tree on the Appomattox. And still some people will not believe that the cruel war is over yet.

THE April elections are very gratifying to the democrats, showing as they do that the tremendous revulsion of feeling against the republican party, which set in two years and over ago, continues to increase in volume and strength. If Rhode Island were under a democratic form of government the democratic nominee would now be governor, having received nearly a thousand votes more than the republican, but a majority of all the votes cast being necessary to a choice in that former republican State the election will go to the legislature, which now seems to have gone democratic. At any rate, we gain the two Congressmen of the little State, which would be glory enough for one day, if we do lose the rest. The democracy is "in the saddle, booted and spurred," and intends to stay there.

THE Register says that great number of Congressman J. B. McCreary's constituents from all over the 8th district were in Richmond last week to welcome him back home and every one appeared to be really glad to see him. On account of his recent accident the governor was compelled to give them a left-hand shake, but as that side is nearest the heart the boys did not object. There are more patriots looking towards the Honorable James B. now than ever did at one time and each of them loves him as he never did before.

As indicated, Judge Wm. Lochren, of Minnesota, was appointed Commissioner of Pensions, the position disgraced by the venal Raum. He was a gallant soldier and is said to be a fine jurist, having been a judge in the highest court of his State for 12 years. The legislature and all the leading politicians of both parties in his State recommended his appointment.

LOUISVILLE means business. The general council has called an election for April 27, to determine whether the city shall donate $1,000,000 in bonds for the State capital. If the sum is voted Frankfort had just as well prepare to give up every thing except the penitentiary. And come to think of it that's enough for a town of her size.

THE prohibitionists are not making rapid strides in converting the country, but Providence seems to be coming over to their side. The Monarchs, at Owensboro, lost $400,000 worth of whisky by fire Saturday, making 33,000 barrels so consumed in the State last week. If it could all go that way it would be better for the country.

—Another bloody tragedy is reported from along the line of the Ohio Valley railway. Wm. King, Ben King, Phinny Moore and John Moore revived a family feud of long standing, the fight resulting in the mortal wounding of John Moore and the serious injury of the other combatants.

—Near Hinton, W. Va., Brakeman James Chambers cut his throat, after having been run over, losing a leg and an arm. He left a note to his mother saying: "Rather than be a burden to you I will end my life."

—Large delegations from all of the Central Kentucky towns attended the sixth annual collegiate oratorical contest at Lexington, Mr. James H. Swango, of Frankfort, proving the victor. He represented Centre College.

—There are yet twenty foreign missions to be filled by the President, including the first class Russian mission. These can be filled by recess appointments, however, if not done before the Senate adjourns this week.

—The machinists, boiler-makers, blacksmiths and helpers in the shops of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad have quit work because the company refused to grant an increase in wages.

—A syndicate with a capital stock of $100,000,000 is being formed by capitalists of Pittsburgh and other cities to establish a mammoth steel-making plant that will rival the Carnegie mills.

—In the criminal court at Washington Theodore M. Arnold, of Kentucky, received a sentence of four years and six months for killing John Kramer in June last. An appeal was taken.

—Equinoctial weather, in the form of hot winds, in some places developing into destructive gales and hurricanes, has been protracted this spring much longer than usual.

—Mr. and Mrs. Asa Barr, of Homestead, Pa., have just made the terrible discovery that they are brother and sister, having been separated in childhood.

—The proof showed that Sutton had confessed that he forged warehouse receipts and he was held at Louisville in $20,000 and his clerk, Becher, in $10,000.

—Nine workmen on Chicago's big ship canal were killed by Friday's storm and the contractors, Mason & Ford Co., lost a large amount of property.

—Now they say Miss Bertha Rouleston, the ward of Distiller Sutton of Louisville sunk most of the proceeds of the forgeries in grain speculation.

—Dowling Brothers' distillery, just recently remodelled, was burned at Burgin. Loss $10,000, partially insured. No whisky was lost.

—Delmonico, the noted New York caterer, was fined $300 and $150 costs for serving woodcocks to parties out of season.

—"Squire Abington's" estate goes to his mother, and not to Mrs. Langtry as reported. That love letter was a forgery.

THE HORSE SHOW.

A Splendid Exhibition of Equine Beauties.

A tremendous crowd of men, with a fair sprinkling of the fair sex, witnessed the splendid exhibition of horses yesterday.

The rain had put the streets in fine order and the weather was all that could be desired. The Stanford Gold Band was on hand and added to the exhilarating scene by discoursing some lively music. There never was a finer display of horse flesh in Stanford, nor a better pleased crowd. Following is a full list of those on exhibition, at least if any is omitted it was unintentional:

M. S. Baughman had on exhibition his great George Dictator, by Dictator, the sire of Jay Eye See, Phallas, Director and many others. He also showed his handsome black saddle stallion, Le Grand.

The beautiful saddler, Gilt Edge, by Second Jewel, was shown by his owner, Matt Sandidge, and was very highly complimented.

Col. B. W., owned by W. R. & E. C. Gaines, was not in very good shape, having very recently gotten over the distemper, but his splendid breeding attracted much attention to him.

E. P. Woods' magnificently bred saddle, Eagle Bird, was one of the most popular horses of the day. He is by the great King Eagle, winner of more than 40 premiums.

Belmont Chief 8689 was the only representative from Lincoln Stock Farm, J. P. Crow, proprietor. He is by Belmont 64 and is only six old, with three in the list.

Tom Yeager showed J. Hue, full brother to Wood Wilkes 225 and Danville Wilkes 227.

Silver Tip, by Silver King, as usual, attracted much attention and Beazley Bros. & Hays certainly have in him one of the finest saddle horses in Kentucky.

J. A. & S. T. Harris' Onward Messenger, by Onward Chief, dam Lady Messenger, was in fine trim and made a good showing.

Eureka Chief, the handsome black saddle stallion owned by Sandidge & Huston, won much favorable comment. He is by Eureka and is a horse of fine style and action.

Jesse F. Cook exhibited Dillard Denmark and Charley Sandidge, both model saddle horses. Jesse is new in the business, but gets there all the same.

Royal King, by On Time, dam Mollie Mount, the property of J. E. Farris, is a grand three year old and like his sire knows all the gaits.

Quinine S. was shown by his owner, Abe Smith, of Boyle.

King Chester, by Chester Dare, made a good showing. He is the property of G. F. Anderson, of Boyle.

Mr. F. Reid's Dorsey Goldust was in splendid shape and was much admired. Some of his two-year-olds are proving themselves very speedy.

English Hunter was greatly admired. He is by Abdallah Messenger and is a splendid combined stallion. He is owned by Capt. B. F. Powell.

Barnes, Hon. G. A. Lackey's splendidly bred three-year-old was the subject of much favorable comment.

G. & C. P. Cecil, of Boyle, had on hand George Wilkes, Happy Day and Gambino, all richly bred fellows.

Sentinel, by Almont Sentinel, the property of George Alford, was greatly admired for his speed, breeding and fine individuality.

Baughman Bros. The Silver King, by Silver King was much admired. He moves like a top and is a No. 1 saddle. L. D. Garner had Denmark Chief in good trim and won for him much favorable comment.

Charlie Spoonmoore, who made a little fortune out of E. I. Barlow, showed, Screamer, a nice saddle and a good horse.

E. P. Faulconer, of Boyle, showed Electrum, by the great Electioneer, and Silver Chimes, by Alcyone.

J. M. Carter, Jr., had Wedgewood in splendid form and secured a good number of mares to be bred this season.

J. T. Hackley's Messenger Denmark and Frank did not look as if they had just stepped out of a band box but showed themselves to be good saddlers notwithstanding.

Jeb Stuart, sire of Kitty Patchen 2213, Darkness 2213 and Out Cross 230 looked all right and showed that the recent cyclone which blew his stable down did him little or no damage.

Chancey Denmark, by On Time, like his father is a splendid mover. Underwood Bros. made a fine season with him last year and will do better this year.

These was only one jack on the ground. It was Tom Curtis, owned by Underwood Bros.

A number of the finely bred stallions advertised in our horse columns were for various reasons kept at home but there was a sufficient number here to testify that the country hereabouts is full of good ones.

THE only newspaper man to visit us yesterday was our old friend James R. Marrs, of the Record-Homestead, the next post-master of Danville.

MISS AMANDA LYNN and Mr. Charles Lynn, brother and sister of Mr. John T. Lynn, came up with the remains of his wife and are now guests at Mrs. Mary Wray's.

NOVELTIES at Danks, the Jeweler's.

ONION sets and garden seeds at A. A. Warren's.

GARDEN seeds of all kinds at W. H. Wearren & Co's.

BOARDERS, with or without rooms, wanted. Mrs. Rannie Burks.

J. W. MARTIN, late of this county, has been appointed postmaster at Pittsburg, an admirable selection.

No house in any interior town ever carried such an unprecedented stock of carpets as Hughes & Tate.

The hotel registers at Richmond show that over 1,100 patriots, desirous of serving their country, as office-holders, have been to see Gov. McCreary in the last ten days and the rush continues.

MR. GANDER, son-in-law of Mr. John vonGrunagin, fell from a horse while fighting fire on the knobs Friday and broke his arm above the elbow. Dr. Reid was called and rendered the necessary surgical operation.

The round-trip World's Fair rate has been fixed at $12 from Louisville, but if you are in no hurry to see the show, you will be able to go almost for nothing. A railroad war is sure to follow and he who waits is wise.

The Harrodsburg Democrat says that the report was current there last week that James Wickersham had been shot and killed at Stanford by a man named Ferrill. We are glad to state that this is a mistake and there have been no possible grounds for the rumor.

MR. A. D. KNOX, general traveling agent of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. of New Jersey, says it was his company and not Mr. Eastland's in which Sheriff Menefee had Mr. Dollins insured. He had paid out $270 and got the $2,500 policy immediately on proof of the death.

No such stock of goods was ever shown in our city as we now have open and ready for our inspection. Dress goods in every grade and weave; trimmings to match and notions in great variety. Shoes in all grades. In carpets, oil cloths and mattings we have an immense stock. Come and see. Severance & Son.

The Somerset Reporter says that Mayor Higgins was granted a change of venue to Boyle county. He is charged with detaining a lady against her will with criminal intent and in moving to Boyle the accused jumps out of the frying-pan into the fire. The people down there do not countenance law breaking of any kind, especially a crime against a woman.

DERANGED.—L. C. DUBB, of the West End, who is better known as "Bud," has had the misfortune to lose his mind. He is in an awful condition and two men are kept in his room to prevent him from doing himself bodily harm. Mr. Dunn had been a hard drinker for years and his lunacy is attributed to excessive use of new whiskey, which he drank exclusively.

WHILE riding a young horse last week Mr. E. D. Kennedy, the assessor, met with a painful accident. The steed became unruly and in his efforts to subdue him the horse reared and fell, throwing Mr. Kennedy to the ground with terrific force. His right shoulder was badly wrenched, while his arm was fearfully bruised and the unfortunate gentleman is now compelled to carry it in a sling.

FIRES on the knobs south and west of town had been raging for several days till Sunday night's rain extinguished them. Great damage was done to fences, some farmers losing as much as 3,000 panels. A number of outhouses were burned and several families lost their little shanty homes. The scene at night was one of almost appalling grandeur and thousands of people were out to witness it.

"For lo! the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth: the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is in our land."—Songs of Solomon 2: 11-12.

The warm weather of the last week has brought forward vegetation at a wonderful rate. The water and sugar maples are nearly in full leaf and grass on lawns and pastures is springing into greenness at the rate of an inch or more a day. Sunday night's showers have given new impetus to the growth, and unless a frost comes, Bro. Slaymaker will have all kinds of vegetables in a few weeks. He is the boss gardener in town.

A LARGE crowd attended the horse show at Hustonville Saturday afternoon and the display of stallions was up to the average in both numbers and quality. The Hustonville brass band discoursed some very sweet music for the occasion; a street vender disposed of a big lot of jewelry and other notions; a patent medicine man sold a good amount of his "cure-all" and pulled teeth free, and these with the display of fine specimens of the equine family made the day a gala one and one long to be remembered. The saddle horses were first shown, and a finer lot could hardly have been gotten together. The trotters came next and some exciting contests of speed were given. Many richly bred fellows were exhibited and altogether the horse show was a success.

COME and see our new spring capes and wraps. Hughes & Tate.

BUY your seed Irish potatoes of W. H. Wearren & Co., and get the best at the lowest price.

THE report that the buildings at Hale's Well had been burned by forest fires proved to be a mistake.

FOR RENT.—Two rooms over Severance & Son's store, cheap. Apply to W. N. Craig, or Dr. Steele Bailey.

GENTLEMEN will do well to examine our clothing, shoes and furnishing goods before buying. Hughes & Tate.

If this should meet your eye before 8 o'clock Monday night, proceed at once to Walton's Opera House and hear John Temple Graves' lecture. He is said to be one of the most eloquent speakers now before the public.

ATTENTION is called to the ad. of the new carriage, paint and repair shop of Campbell & Austin. They are first-class workmen and guarantee all their work. Call on them, in the building lately occupied by H. C. Rapley's tailoring establishment.

THE FAIR.—About $750 worth of the Fair stock has already been taken and it now seems a certainty. Those who have taken stock are earnestly urged to meet at the Court-House Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to perfect arrangements. Be sure to be present.

SERIOUSLY HURT.—While working on the new store-house being built for Stephens & Knox at Rowland, a scaffold gave away and B. F. Rounten was thrown to the ground a distance of 18 feet. He was considerably bruised up by the fall and appears to be seriously injured in the spine by being struck by a piece of timber. He is paralyzed to some extent, and continues to vomit blood.

IS the county court yesterday Judge Varnon refused to grant license for Mr. Eddings to keep a hotel with saloon at McKinney or to consider S. A. Coyle's application for distiller's license. The other applicants were granted license. J. C. Perkins qualified as guardian of Kittie Perkins. The will of T. D. Hill was admitted to probate and J. H. Wilson qualified as executor. It devises his estate of about $12,000 to his wife and five children. The will of Mrs. Catherine Baughman was also probated and Mr. S. H. Baughman qualified as executor. J. K. and M. S. Baughman, also named, declining to qualify. Her estate is divided among her three sons and the children of the late Henry Baughman, being willed to the latter as a separate estate, not subject to the debts of the persons they may marry.

THE MACCABEES.—As previously announced in this paper, the Maccabees lodge was organized here Saturday night. The Stanford band discoursed some of its best music previous to the hour of opening the lodge-room, which was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd on the street, including the members of the Maccabees lodge at Junction City, who had come to assist in the institution and initiation. At 8 o'clock the work of organizing began with Deputy Supreme Commander G. H. Terpany in command, aided by the following Maccabees from Junction City: W. G. Surber, Charles McCord, Wm. A. Smith, O. J. Thurmond, Ed. Wilkinson, Booker Wilkinson, W. D. Cozatt, J. F. Hocker, J. E. Booth and J. H. Calvert. There were 30 charter members, but so thoroughly acquainted with the work is Mr. Terpany that by 11 o'clock there were as many full fledged Knights of the Maccabees. After a few instructions and a kindly talk in which the Deputy Supreme Commander bade Stanford Lodge No. 7, God speed in its new and excellent work, the newly made knights and visitors repaired to the Carpenter House to enjoy a luncheon. Mrs. Dalton had this part of the programme under her especial supervision and had laid about 50 covers. The tables were laden with good things, embracing substantial and other edibles which had been gotten up in the most approved culinary art. The lunch was a royal one and full justice was done it. Toasts were indulged in to a limited extent, after which, at midnight, the lively crowd of Maccabees dispersed. Prior to leaving Odd Fellows' Hall, where the organization was made, the following officers were elected: Thomas Dalton, Past Commander; Wm. Severance, Commander; Will H. Wearren, Lt. Commander; Joseph F. Waters, Keeper of Records; M. F. Elkin, Chaplin; G. L. Penny, Finance Keeper; Dr. J. A. Amon, Physician; S. M. Owens, Sergeant; Dr. W. B. Penny, Master at Arms; J. T. Embury, 1st Master at Guard; Albert Severance, 2nd Master at Guard; E. C. Walton, Sentinel; G. G. Wine, Pickett; Thomas Dalton, W. H. Wearren and Wm. Severance, Trustees. The limit of insurance allowed is $5,000 and many took that amount; a good many took $2,000 and the rest $1,000. The lodge will meet again on Saturday night and all of the members are urged to be present.

The toasts were as follows and the gentlemen who responded to them went on the principle that brevity is the soul of wit: "Our Invited Guests," J. F. Hocker: "Our Order," Wm. A. Smith: "What I Know about Riding a Goat," Wm. Severance: "The Kentucky Press," Joe F. Waters: "What should be the Normal Pulse of a Candidate," Dr. Jesse D. Amon: "The Light of the World," G. H. Terpany.

Mrs. W. D. NEWLAND lost her pocket-book in Stanford yesterday. Finder will please return to her at Crab Orchard or leave at this office.

THE engine of the South-bound passenger train slipped an eccentric, or something of the kind, yesterday, causing it to come in nearly two hours late.

DANVILLE WANTS.—The capital, water works, another railroad, another public school building (on the west side), and some manufactories.—Advocate. Why not say she wants the earth and be done with it?

AFTER 35 years of continuous service, Capt. W. W. Sweeney, who pulled the bell cord on this division for a long time, has been retired to an easy berth in one of the offices in Louisville. The old man has more friends than anybody and all will be glad to know that his declining years will be spent in less arduous labor. During his long service he never met with an accident, even though he ran trains during the dangerous war times.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Mrs. H. A. Burdett and Miss Mary Evans were married in Garrard county last week.

—Mr. Robert Stapleton and Miss Laura Parker were married at Mr. Isaac Stapleton's in this county last week.

—Chicago's new Mayor, Carter Harrison, denies the rumor that he is to marry Miss Nina Gillette, of Elkhart, Ills. He confesses that "Barkis is willing, but Peggotty isn't."

—A couple more than 50 years old each, eloped from Nelson county and were married last week. "There never was a goose so gray but could find a gander for its mate."
